ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Beth Driscoll Osowski graduated summa cum laude from the University of North Dakota in 1987 with a Bachelor of Science in Education and received a Juris Doctorate with Distinction from the University of North Dakota School of Law in 1993, after having been ranked first in her class all three years. Since law school, Osowski has practiced law in the state of Wisconsin, representing civil litigants in many areas, including motor vehicle accidents, premises and product liability, medical and legal malpractice, contract and business litigation, construction disputes, will contests, real estate, and landlord/tenant matters. She has presented many legal seminars as well as authored dozens of outlines for continuing legal education courses, including: Trial Techniques, Selecting a Jury, Themes for Maximum Jury Appeal, Quantifying Pain and Suffering Damages for the Jury, Expert Witnesses, Crossing the Defense Medical Examiner at Trial, Rebuttals, Problematic Jury Deliberations, Building the Plaintiff’s Case, Nuts and Bolts of Discovery, Pros and Cons of ADR, ERISA Subrogation, Construction Cases, Premises Liability Cases, Legal Malpractice, Tort Reform, and Civility. She is a frequent guest on the local public television show, It’s Your Law.

In 2007, she received what is believed to be the largest jury verdict in her county’s history on a premises liability personal injury case.

Osowski is a member of the Winnebago County Bar Association, the State Bar of Wisconsin, the Wisconsin Association for Justice, the American Association for Justice, and the American Bar Association. She serves as a district committee member for the Wisconsin Office of Lawyer Regulation, is on the board of directors for the Wisconsin Association for Justice, is on the Litigation Section Board for the State Bar of Wisconsin, and serves as Chair for the City of Oshkosh Board of Review.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I would like to thank the following people for their assistance with this project:

George W. Curtis, who has given me the benefit of his many decades of trial experience, while still finding humor in the practice of law.

Jessica Pickart, Kelly Schutzbank, and Donna Thompson, for their friendship, competence, and support at work, enabling me to find time for this project.

The professors at UND School of Law, especially Professor Larry Kraft, who provided me with the best legal education I could imagine.

Tim Driscoll, for his encouragement to write this book, and to go to law school in the first place, and to Polly Tack, for her constant love and support.

My children, Megan and Nicholas, who have been the inspiration for so many examples in closing arguments and in this project because of their wit and determination, and to my husband, Pat, for his intelligence, patience, technical assistance, and skillful editing.
